

I am adding my voice to the growing list of concerned citizens to stop the consolidation of broadcast as well as print media. The reporting of GW2 is a prime example of why this is dangerous to a free democratic society. It appeared to be more like state run TV than a free unincumbered press. This has to be stopped before it is too late!